A CREATIVE APPROACH

Rapid change has become a fact of life for individuals, organizations, and businesses around the world. Demands on people in the workplace continue to rise and staff is expected to adapt and learn more quickly than ever. If not managed well, organizational changes and continuous pressure on people in the workplace can take a toll on performance.

Art & Creativity for Healing's Corporate Workshops are highly interactive, creative centered sessions, which specialize in team building, corporate vision and stress management. The workshops have been shown to improve staff morale and reduce stress.

Help employees build the skills they need to be successful in their work-related and personal life. These topics can be presented at staff meetings, organizational gatherings or seminars.

WHAT OUR CLIENTS ARE SAYING:

"It surprised me how interactive and innovative this Art4Healing process was—anyone can do it without needing to be an artist. I learned some new things about my staff due to this process. I was so impressed with the first workshop that I sent our Operations Team over as well. They too had a powerful, engaging team-building experience."

Paul Giobbi
Founder/CEO of Zumasys

"Hearing other co-workers thoughts and insights helped me see where everyone was on our team."

Gregg Eisenman
Hotel Management

"Art & Creativity for Healing has facilitated our staff retreats for the past 5 years with exceptionally high ratings from our employees."
